Washington, DC - Rep. Bruce Braley (D-Waterloo) announced today that staffers from his Waterloo office will continue holding office hours in several rural communities impacted by the Flood of 2008 and the Memorial Day weekend tornado to help victims of the disasters get back on their feet.

"With the help and support of the community, Iowans impacted by the floods and the tornado will get back on their feet," Braley said. "I'm sending my staff to hold office hours in rural communities to answer questions about federal disaster aid and to open casework to help victims navigate the FEMA bureaucracy. I want my office to be a resource for people who need help recovering from this disaster."

Braley's staff had been holding office hours for several weeks in communities impacted by the tornado. Rural communities impacted by the Floods of 2008 have also been added to the office hours lineup.

The schedule of office hours for the upcoming weeks-starting this Friday, June 27-is below. Braley aides will visit Waverly, New Hartford, Greene, Parkersburg, Clermont, and Hazleton. This schedule will remain in effect until further notice.
